EDITOR'S MESSAGE

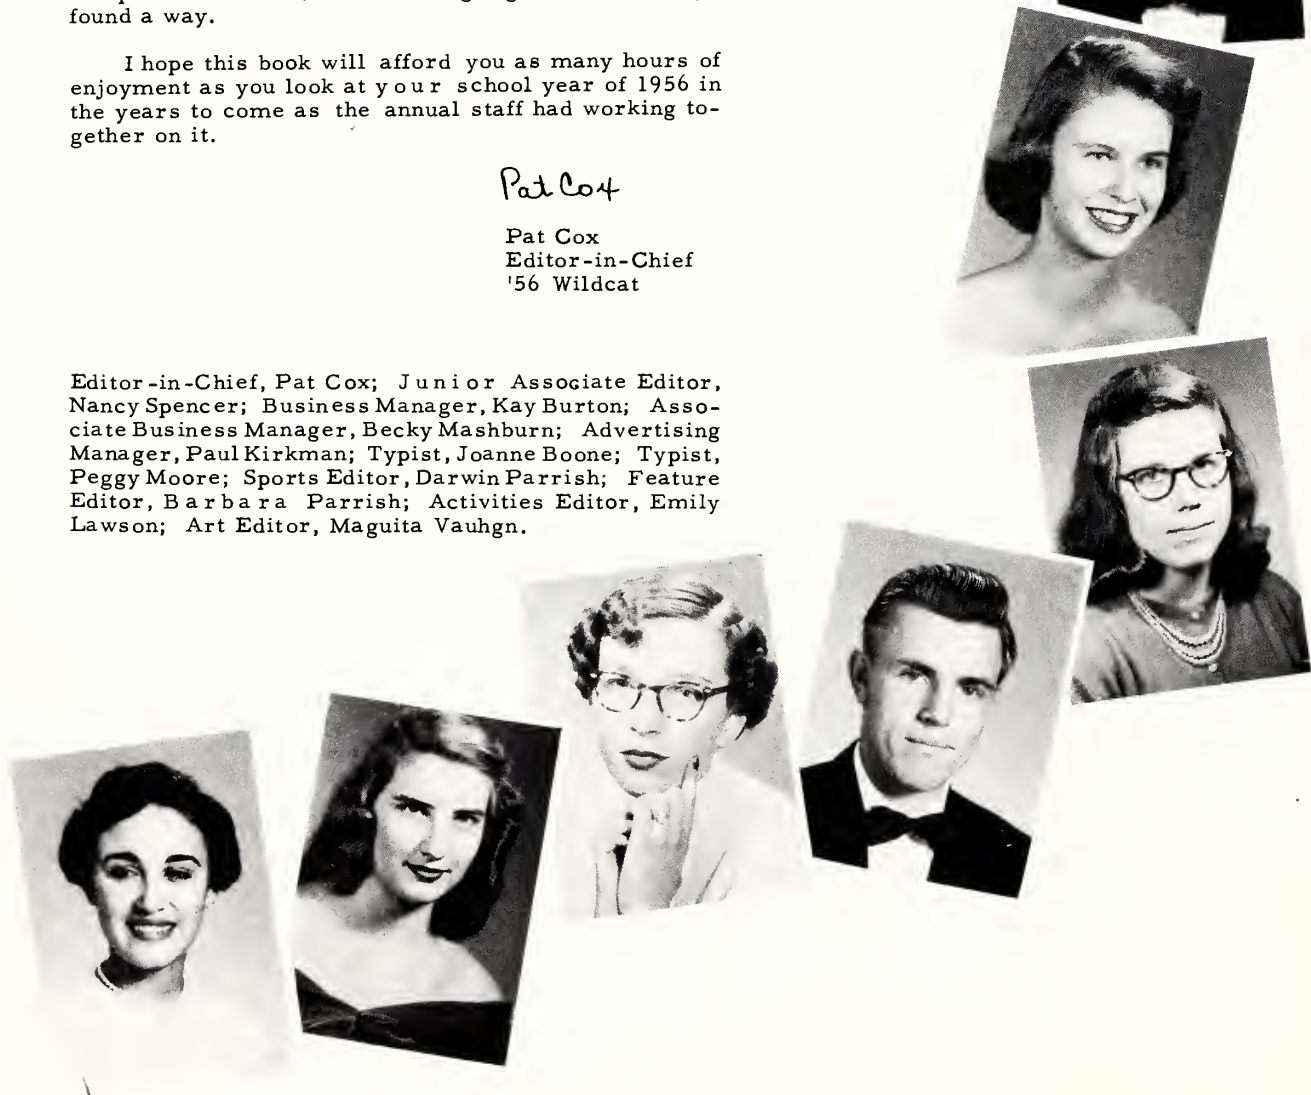

I feel sure I can speak for the whole annual staff when I say that working on the '56 Wildcat has been a wholly new but happy experience. There were times when it seemed we would never be able to carry out all our plans and ideas, but working together, we always found a way.

I hope this book will afford you as many hours of enjoyment as you look at your school year of 1956 in the years to come as the annual staff had working together on it.

Dear Mr. Fleming,

For four years you have stood by us. Always you have been a friend to those in need of your guidance. You were a sponsor of our class when we were Freshmen and Sophomores, and now we find you helping us with our own edition of the "Wildcat." Many a student and teacher has benefitted by your services as teacher and principal at our high school.

Mr. Fleming, for your many services to us and our school we the class of 1956 and the annual staff, wish to show our appreciation as now we with warm hearts make the dedication of our annual to you.

Congratulations Class of '56

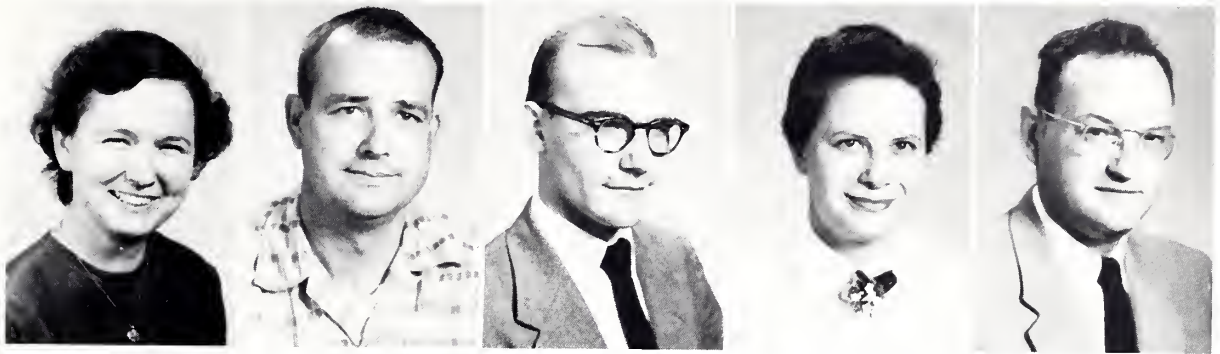

As you turn the pages of this yearbook a pictorial history of 1955-56 will unfold before your eyes. You have recorded here classmates, friends, teachers, events, buildings, trees, flowers, and scenes.

Your class has seen many changes in administration, buildings, and policies at the Madison City Schools. You have been a source of strength and hope during these years of change and growth. The lessons you have learned from books, honesty, and fair play will provide firm foundation throughout life.

Class Poem

REMINISCING

Let us peer into the mind of a '56 graduate, aged and gray,
As sweet dreams carry him into days of yore
His thoughts are free and his heart is gay,
For now he doth enter yesteryears' door!

Hark! Be still!
Even I hear music floating o'er the air;
The melody brings sweet memories to me.
Now, all is tranquil!
Can you hear? Ah, flee each care!
Class of '56, 'tis all for thee!

Is this reality?
I see the dear path beaten halls of our beloved Alma Mater;
I hear golden voices of friends who there did dwell.
Oh, friends, join me!
Let us live again in days of youth and laughter,
When we did seek to learn and found all well.

Oh, carefree days!
'Tis good to live again in thy time
Of dances, parties, games, and gaiety.
Oh, youth's happy ways!
Such golden opportunities were both yours and mine;
Dear Madison Hi, we give our thanks to thee.

O lessons true,
How valuable you have proven to each one
Who sought to learn and found souls willing to share.
Madison Hi, 'twas you
Who set us on the path leading to where success is won,
Who formed our lives and showed us that each was your care.

Sweet music again!
O joy! The song of Madison Hi is sweet as a flower,
'Tis that which will forever live in our hearts, 'tis true.
O beautiful strain--
Once by our school we'll always stand beside her;
Her guidance true will be with us and lead us through.

Class History

On a very special Wednesday morning of September in the year 1952, a wild and very excited group of Freshmen, 108 strong, entered Madison High School for the first time. The class of '52 went down in history as one of the largest Freshmen classes to enroll in Madison High School prior to that date. The new life at Madison High was considerably different from grammar school, with the changing of classes, but the newcomers soon learned to adopt the new ways and enter into the activities. Our homeroom teachers were Mrs. Harold Robertson, Mr. Raymond Cure, and Mr. Charles Fleming. Officers elected during our Freshmen year were Mabel Neal, President; Vaughn Williams, Vice-President; Gay Bullins, Secretary-Treasurer; and Doris Wright, Reporter. Maguita Vaughn was elected homecoming candidate for our class. Barbara Fagge and Mabel Neal were attendants in the May Court. Summer vacation was over too soon and the class of '56 entered Madison High as Sophomores.

Officers elected our Sophomore year were Dick Anderson, President; Becky Sharp, Vice-President; Pat Cox, Secretary; and Gaye Burton, Treasurer. Gay Bullins, our Homecoming Candidate, came in second place.

Other exciting events during our Sophomore year were the Sophomore-Senior Weiner Roast and the honor of carrying the Daisy Chain for the Seniors. A number of students were missing from our class and we were divided into only two homerooms with Mrs. Robertson and Mr. Fleming as our homeroom teachers.

We all looked forward to summer vacation again, but were even more excited upon returning to Madison High School as Juniors and the exciting schedule of activities that lay ahead for us. Miss Julia Brown and Miss Maude Webster were our sponsors. Officers elected during the Junior year were: Darwin Parrish, President; Barbara Fagge, Vice-President; Jean Hill, Secretary; Becky Mashburn, Treasurer; and Dee Shelton, Reporter. Dee Shelton, our candidate, was elected Homecoming Queen of 1954 at Madison High School. Dee was also elected Maid-of-Honor for the May Court. Sandy McHone and Barbara Fagge represented the Junior class in the May Court. The most significant event of our Junior year was giving a prom for the Seniors, which broke the tradition of the annual banquet. Magazines were sold to make money. The prom was given in the J. C. Lassiter Cafeteria with a replica of a Japanese Garden as the theme. Our Class rings were ordered in January. The honor of marshals was bestowed upon Pat Cox, Chief; Kaye Burton, Becky Mashburn, Emily Lawson, Dee Shelton, Gaye Burton and Barbara Fagge.

Thus three years had been completed at Madison High School for the class of '56. In the fall of '55 a group of 54 students once again and for the last time entered Madison High School as Seniors. Our Senior Sponsors were: Miss Ruth McKellar and Miss Maude Webster. Class Officers elected were: Dick Anderson, President; Gaye Burton, Vice-President; Yvonne Joyce, Secretary; Mary Frances Shelton, Treasurer; and Frankie Wall, Reporter. Members elected to the Annual Staff of the '56 Wild Cat Year Book were: Pat Cox, Editor-in-chief; Kaye Burton, Business Manager; Becky Mashburn, Associate Business Manager; Paul Kirkman, Advertising; Maguita Vaughn, Art Editor; Darwin Parrish, Sports; Emily Lawson, Activities; Barbara Parrish, Feature Editor; Peggy Moore and Joanne Boone, Typists; and Nancy Spencer, Associate Junior Editor. We were the first class to have an Associate Junior Editor. Annual Sponsors were Miss Sara Martin and Mr. Charles Fleming; Last Will and Testament, Sandy McHone and Becky Mashburn; Class Historian, Kaye Burton; and Class Prophecy, Mary Frances Shelton.

Sandy McHone, our Homecoming Candidate, came in second place. Tri-captains of the football team were Dick Anderson, Darwin Parrish, and Glenn Williams. Yvonne Joyce and Jean Hill were elected co-captains of the girl's basketball team and Tommy Bullock, captain of the boy's basketball team.

The Seniors enjoyed a wonderful trip to Washington in April.

We would like to thank all of those who helped to make our Senior play, "Young, Willing and Able", a success, and a special thanks to Mrs. Penn for her patience and guidance in directing it.

The Seniors would like to express their gratitude to the Sophomores for a weiner roast and the Juniors for the Junior-Senior Prom.

Thus as this last year now comes to a close, we look back over our stay in Madison High School as one of the happiest times we have ever experienced.

As we say, "au revoir", we realize that these have been our happiest years.

Class Prophecy

As I gaze into the crystal ball I see my classmates ten years from now in their future work and play.

The figures are a little misty now, but it seems to be fading away.

Now I can see them clearly-----

Joanne Boone and Frankie Wall are making a grand tour of the world.

Jo Ann Morton has just made her debut at the Metropolitan Opera.

Dick Anderson is playing pro football with the Redskins.

Jackie Martin is leading an expedition in South American, trying to capture some rare squirrel.

Darwin Parrish has risen quickly to the top. The President has appointed him Commander-in-Chief of the Air Force.

Yvonne Joyce is head girl's coach at U.N.C. while her friend, Emily Lawson is a Phys. Ed. teacher at Senior High in Greensboro.

Nadine Hobbs has become a famous hair stylist, and the latest is green hair.

Ramona Lawrence has quit at the fifth husband.

Wilma Vernon has discovered a diamond mine in the jungles of Africa.

Gay Bullins has only one diamond, but a man came with it.

Hughes Giles is a Chrysler dealer in New York and C. H. Fallin is winning all the 1966 stock car races with one of them.

Ronnie Lee is the second man to climb Mt. Everest.

Wayne Clark is a game warden. Unbelievable isn't it?

David Roberts is still loafing around.

Pat Cox is roaring around in her little black jaguar! Leopard skin seat covers too!

Kaye Burton has turned private detective. Quite a change from her sister Gaye Burton, who is noted for her exciting window display at Rich's in Atlanta.

Becky Mashburn is a buyer for Thalhimers in Winston and she is on a trip to Paris to get the latest from Dior. Becky Sharp is covering the story for the President of the United States.

Dee Shelton is head anesthetist at Cone's in Greensboro while Mary Frances Shelton is private nurse to an old Multi-Millionaire.

Barbara Fagge is secretary to the man of her dreams.

Maguita Vaughn Ikerd has been selected as America's No. 1 Housewife.

Charles Williams is famous movie idol and Craig Webster is his publicity manager.

Vaughn Williams is the youngest professor at U. N. C.

Claude Hopper is giving guitar lessons and making money by the bushels.

Will Rogers Hopper is an important business man in Mobile, Alabama, with Peggy Moore as his secretary.

Autry Foley made All-American for two years and is now coaching at a well-known University.

Sandy McHone is private secretary to the President.

Cecil Atkins is designing a new sports car for the Ford Company, and Glenn Williams has discovered more oil in Texas.

W. L. Roberts is the Captain of the U.S.S. Forrestal.

David Shelton owns a large farm and is considered a regular Southern Gentleman.

Paul Kirkman has a chain of drugstores all over the country.

Barbara Parrish is a Buick saleswoman in Florida and Jean Hill is a test driver for the Chevrolet Company.

Edith Neal is a Captain in the W.A.C.'s while Shirley Hand Hall has joined the Waves to be near "Crusher".

Peggy Gann owns a reducing salon.

Betty Manuel models for the shampoo advertisement on Marthe Newman's T.V. Comedy Hour.

Doris Newman has been voted "Quietest Girl in the World" and Ruth Williams is a first grade teacher and she wishes she could have quiet.

Arlean Nance has a steady job and paycheck.

Peggy Brown Smith and Tootsie Puckett Craig are keeping house and taking care of their children. The biggest career imaginable.

Bobbie Hall is a famous model for John Powers.

Tommy Bullock is playing professional basketball.

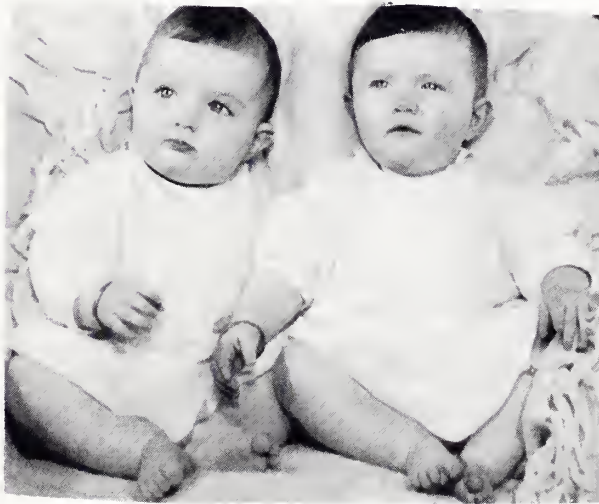

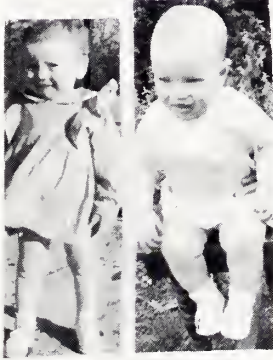

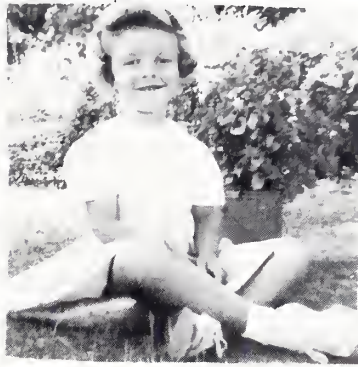

Now the crystal ball is beginning to cloud again. So ends the misty dream.
